Councillor Michael Smith welcomed those present to the Special Meeting of Thurles Municipal District, convened as a mark of respect to former Tipperary County Councillor Joe Bourke RIP.

Councillor Smith passed the condolences of the Municipal District to Joe's children and family.

Councillor Smith remarked on how fitting it was that the meeting was taking place in the library which meant a lot to Joe.

Councillor Smith opened the meeting to the room and the Councillors and former Councillors present paid their respects to Joe.

It was remarked that Joe was a family man first and foremost. Joe was humble, decent, a community man and a man with great integrity who was never afraid to make brave decisions.

The Councillors joined together in passing their condolences to Joe's children and extended family.

That concluded the official business of the Special Meeting.
